

NEW LYNCHING AS TROOPS SWARM ATLANTA STREETS

Jail Stormed, Negro
Dragged Out and Hanged.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 24.—As troops swarmed the city early today a mob of two hundred men left in groups, joined others at Eastpoint, a suburb five miles out, and stormed the jail where Zeb Long, a negro, was held as a prisoner.

Long had been parading the streets with a rifle on his shoulder threatening to shoot any white man who approached him. When a policeman attempted to arrest him he fought his captor and held off half a dozen officers for twenty minutes. When finally overpowered he was hastily committed to jail.

As the negroes were threatening a riot, a mob of white men gathered around the jail. A telegraph pole was used to break down the door, and the mob, soon reaching a determination to do away with him.

When the jail was surrounded the warden tried to shield the prisoner and lead a parley with the crowd, but he was not permitted to argue any length of time.

A rush was made for the main entrance to the jail, the doors battered down and the crowd swarmed in.

Long was found in a cell, a rope was thrown around him and he was dragged out to the road. A telegraph pole was used to break down the door, and the mob, soon reaching a determination to do away with him.

There was a yell of excitement, and the mob dispersed, leaving the corpse hanging to the telegraph pole.

To-day the city proper is quiet. The militia is in control of the streets. The business has resumed its normal condition, the street car schedules have been resumed, the schools are open as usual and public confidence is being restored under the energetic measures taken by the police and county and state authorities.

The total number of dead is difficult to estimate. Ten bodies of those killed in connection with the riot since Saturday night have been prepared for burial. It is reported on seemingly good authority that several bodies have been taken away for burial and it is equally probable that some deaths have been reported to the police or other authorities. The exact number of dead is not likely to be known for some days.

Long today the situation seemed more favorable than at any time since Saturday night. The authorities have discontinued the sale of firearms and the Fifth Regiment. This leaves only a full regiment of ten companies in charge. The sale of firearms and the Fifth Regiment. This leaves only a full regiment of ten companies in charge.

The feature of the situation is the security of negroes usually employed about the city. The telegraph companies are advertising for white delivery clerks, the post-office is experiencing great difficulty in sending out special delivery mail, although negro drivers are seen on many wagons; many such vehicles are handled by whites. Domestic servants are frightened, and an exodus of large proportions of negroes from the city is believed to be in progress.

The authorities, however, believe they have the situation well in hand.

MEMPHIS MOBS HUNTING NEGROES.
(Special to The Evening World.)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 24.—The mob spirit that rules Atlanta, Ga., has spread to this city, where a reputation of negro license has stirred the people, and a race war more bitter, it is possible, than in the Georgia city is threatened.

Within two days four women have been attacked by colored thugs, and in consequence seven negroes have been slain.

To-day this city and vicinity is in a state of turmoil that the police find it difficult to hold in check, and the need of a call for troops is being discussed.

Few negroes dare to show themselves and these are well guarded.

Not one of the negro assailants has been apprehended, and the hunt for them is being carried on by a special detail of police and volunteer citizens. If they are caught lynchings are sure to follow.

Many of the prominent white citizens are exceedingly anxious to emulate the example of the whites of Atlanta and
